Category Definitions

Pieced A quilt that is made using traditional piecing techniques.

Appliquéd A quilt that is predominantly appliquéd, either by hand or machine.

Mixed Technique Any quilt that does not obviously fit into another category.

A quilt that uses equal amounts of two major techniques, such as piecing and appliquéd, may fall within this category. Quilts made using techniques other than piecing and applique, such as whole cloth, yo-yo, or crazy quilts belong in this category, as well as quilts incorporating embroidery, photo transfers, embellishments, etc.

Art A quilt that shows personal creativity and originality. Art quilts are designed to inspire, not to keep you warm. They can be abstract or realistic and may use materials that are unusual in traditional quilts.

Other Quilted accessories, such as table toppers, purses and totes and wearable items like jackets and vest should be entered in the Other category.
